

Typical Services of an RC&D

RC&D Councils generally offer support in project planning, grant research and writing, grant and project management, and through fiscal sponsorship of projects consistent with our mission. These services may have fees associated with them. Details of how these services are delivered will be discussed up front as a project is initiated.

Should you create your own nonprofit?

RC&D's have assisted many groups launch their own nonprofit as a part of our services. There are advantages both ways and you may want to learn more. Great information is available from the Minnesota Council for Nonprofits and the MN Attorney General's Office.

Partnering with RC&D as a fiscal sponsor

RC&D's in Minnesota will consider Fiscal Sponsorship as a comprehensive alternative to starting up and running a new, separate nonprofit organization.

Fiscal sponsorship is a cost effective way to implement new programs, bring together groups to collaborate on an issue, and test new approaches to complex problems. Fiscal sponsorship is a common mechanism used in the nonprofit sector that enables individuals and organizations to start new programs without establishing a new, separate nonprofit organization.
